

cial and Personal

Business. CLAUDE A. SWANSON, Petersburg, will arrive in Richmond this week, to be the guest of Mr. J. A. Blair, at 404 West Main Street. She will receive with Daily Blair at an at home, to be given Sunday evening, in honor of Mr. Blair's family. Miss Fanny Carter Scott, of Petersburg, will be the first time Mrs. Swan-son has taken part in a social function since leaving Richmond last February. Mrs. Blair's entertainment will be a most interesting and fashionable affair, and the association with it of so popular a person as Mrs. Swanson, and of so popular a person as Miss Scott, will be a most interesting and fashionable affair.

Guests at Snowden. As Mrs. William Northrop, who has been a frequent guest at Snowden, the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. West, near Fredericksburg, has returned to Richmond, other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sam, also of Richmond, and Miss Le Wellford, of Sabine Hall, Richmond county. Mrs. Guest's sister, Mrs. J. A. Blair, of Petersburg, will be the first time Mrs. Swan-son has taken part in a social function since leaving Richmond last February.

Debutantes Invited. The debutantes of the year have been invited to a vaudeville show which is to be given in the Jefferson Hotel Auditorium at 8:30 o'clock on the evening of Thanksgiving Day, by the Richmond Association of the University of Virginia.

In addition to the debutantes, always a primary centre of interest, there will be a brilliant gathering of the fashionable girls and men of the town, many of whom have friends among the debutantes and the teams from the universities. The Glee Club and University of Virginia band will be featured in the evening, and the program is expected to prove immensely entertaining to all present.

The vaudeville show will be, so to speak, a curtain raiser to the Thanksgiving Sale of Neckfixings.

C., have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Mary Warner, and Levi Cook, of Washington, at the home of the bride at noon to-day. The bride's only attendant will be her sister, Miss Anna Warner. George Booth, of Columbus, O., will be best man. The couple will live in Washington.

Engagement of Interest.

An engagement of interest announced in New York is that of Miss Emily Nelson Ritchie McLean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald McLean, to Edward A. Gill Wylie, son of the prominent New York physician. Miss McLean's mother is ex-president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution, and a native of Frederick, Md. Mr. Wylie is a graduate of Yale, '98, and is associated with the law office of Judge Gildersleeve.

Dr. Gill Wylie is an uncle of Mrs. Thomas McAdams, of this city, and a Southern man by nativity, who has grown famous in his profession among New York practitioners.

Chantecler Bridge Party.

Last Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. W. Ashby Jones entertained at their home in Gloucester county, at a "Chantecler" bridge party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Ashby Jones, Jr., of Richmond. The score-cards represented "Chantecler," the hen-pheasant and many other followers, in the brilliant plumage of natural feathers, while the prizes were handsome hand-embroidered articles on which Sir Chantecler was shown in all his glory.

Mrs. Jones also entertained at a large afternoon tea on Tuesday in honor of Mrs. Jones, Jr.

To Leave for New York.

Miss Ellen Glasgow, who has just finished a new Virginia novel, leaves for New York this week to remain some weeks.

Miss Glasgow's book will be one of the early and important publications of 1911.

Harrisonburg, Va., November 22.—Judge Rea and Judge Crump, of the State Corporation Commission; General Manager Maher and Superintendent Needles, of the Norfolk and Western, were in Elkton to-day in conference with Town Council, in regard to the erection of the proposed new passenger station. The present structure is inadequate.

Church's Work in Foreign Missions.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

Roanoke, Va., November 22.—The fifth day's session of the Virginia Baptist General Association opened at 9:10 o'clock this morning at the First Baptist Church, with the "Quiet Hour," conducted by Rev. W. W. Hamilton, D. D.

The first subject for discussion was that of foreign missions. The report was read by Rev. R. B. Garrett, D. D., of Portsmouth. The report gives valuable information concerning the work being done by all Christians the world over, and concerning the Southern Baptists are doing. Southern Baptists have 289 churches, 13,229 members, and 713 workers in the foreign field. The home churches gave last year, $501,058, and is asked this year to raise $600,000. On the whole foreign field there are now some 2,000,000 members. One million was won in 100 years, and the second million in ten years.

The first speaker to the report on foreign missions was Rev. H. C. Mabie, his special theme being "Shall We Export Our Religion?" His address was thoughtful, clean-cut and interesting. The second speaker was Rev. T. B. Ray, one of the best in Richmond. His theme was "Missionary Triumphs in South America." "This work of foreign missions," he said, "our export trade, is expensive, but it is full of profit. Will you invest in this work?"

For $30 a year a native worker in China or India can be supported.

Rev. B. Ray was the second speaker on foreign missions, his special theme being "Mission Triumphs in South America."

Report on Education.

The report of the education commission was presented by Dr. H. H. Pitt, and discussed by Drs. Charles Marly and B. C. Henning. During the discussion of his subject, a large and handsome chart, showing the grounds and proposed buildings of the Greater Richmond College was displayed above the pulpit. It was stated that ground for the new building will be broken in the coming spring, and it is hoped that by the fall of 1913 at least some of these buildings will be ready for occupancy.

Ministers' Relief Fund.

The ministers' relief fund report was made by T. H. Elliott, and discussed by W. F. Robertson, of Norfolk. Mr. Elliott's report showed that the receipts from the churches amounted to $4,536.25 for the year, or $487.87 less than last year. The income from all sources amounted to $5,982.08, or $605.99 less than last year. The benefactions amounted to $5,375, or $152.50 less than last year.

last year. The disbursements to beneficiaries, except receipts from the churches by $338.75. Seventy-one persons were assisted during the last year, and five new beneficiaries were added.

The following deaths occurred during the year: Brothers J. W. McCown and R. Bailey Sanford, and Sisters Mary E. Marshall and J. J. Settle.

"Since 1872," he concluded, "we have assisted over 522 persons, and have paid out to beneficiaries $107,832.15."

The cutting of cloth for a suit of clothes, presented to the association, to be given to some minister, by the Charlottesville woolen mills, went by the report of the committee to Rev. J. Lee Taylor, who, for thirty-five years was a missionary of the State Mission Board. A cash collection of over $20 was taken up, and given for making up the cloth.

Memorial Service.

At the afternoon session a memorial service was held in honor of the ministers who died this year. The list is unusually long, and is as follows: J. R. Quarles, J. M. McCown, R. B. Sanford, J. B. Hawthorne, O. Ellyson, J. F. Lancaster, J. A. Mundy, M. E. Parrish, T. D. Scott, S. G. Mason, Thomas P. Pearson, Robert Williamson, Joseph Leonard, C. E. Stuart.

Rev. H. W. Battle, of Charlottesville, paid a tribute to Rev. J. B. Hawthorne, D. D., and Rev. W. J. Simpson, D. D., spoke concerning the life and work of Rev. J. A. Mundy, D. D.

The Laymen's Missionary Movement was discussed by Dr. Livius Lankford, of Norfolk. He suggested that the committee on this work be increased from three to twelve. The report was discussed further by Dr. J. T. Henderson, of Bristol.
